

Birth Control Worksheet
Answer the questions on your own sheet of paper

1. <http://www.4woman.gov/faq/birthcont.htm> What is the best method of contraception?
2. What does it say about HIV and Birth Control (also true for other STDs)?
3. What method is 100% effective?
4. What is the effectiveness (percentage) of male condoms?
5. What is the effectiveness of the pill?
6. What is ovarian cancer and how does it develop?
7. The pill contains _____ and _____
8. What is a female condom? How effective is it?
9. What is Norplant and what has happened to it? (Do a Google search)
10. Describe how a diaphragm works, how effective is it?
11. What is "The Patch"?
12. What is pre ejaculate fluid? And what is the problem with the withdrawal method of birth control?
13. What is "the morning after pill"? How effective is it? What are the side effects? What is the 120-hour window? Are they available in the US? Describe how they are used.
14. <http://www.avert.org/cpills.htm> What are the 5 things listed under "a girl can become pregnant"?
15. Name three types of things involved in a "barrier method" of birth control
16. Under hormonal contraceptives what does it say about the pill and "what do you do?"
17. How do injectible hormonal contraceptives work?
18. http://www.healthreserve.com/birth_control/female_condom.htm How does the "emergency contraception" work?
19. What is a contraceptive sponge?
20. <http://www.biology.iupui.edu/biocourses/N100/2k4ch39repronotes.html> What happens day 1 after fertilization?
21. On day 4 what the ball of cells is called a _____
22. Day 6 what happens?
23. What is established on day 10-14? What happens at the end of this stage?
24. What happens on days 15-21 after fertilization?
25. Day 21. During weeks 3 through week 8, the name, _____ is used.
26. When does the heart begin to beat?
27. First Brain waves?
28. At week 9 the name changes to a _____
29. Development is largely finished except for _____ and _____
30. Parturition (birth) occurs at week _____
31. <http://www.wprc.org/fetal.phtml> Name one thing that occurs to the fetus during each of the three trimesters