Clackamas Middle College (CMC) CMC is an accredited public charter high school sponsored by North Clackamas School District, and is located 10 miles outside of Portland, Oregon.

CMC enrolls 300 students from all over the Portland Metro Area. Our students come from varied socio-economic and academic backgrounds with many different languages spoken.

CMC provides an inclusive, innovative, and challenging personalized education that cultivates and prepares independent learners for college and careers.

CMC bridges the gap from high school to college, and prepare our students for the world of college and/or careers. In its short existence (18 yrs-est.2003), each graduate earned an average of nearly 70 college credits along with their high school diploma.

We are a solid choice for many families in the Portland Metro Area

Student Population: 300

Transportation Options: School bus route to neighborhood locations for NCS D students. Out of district students provide their own transportation.
