

September 15 to October 15 is National Hispanic American Heritage Month

The Library of Congress, National Archives and Records Administration, National Endowment for the Humanities, National Gallery of Art, National Park Service, Smithsonian Institution and United States Holocaust Memorial Museum join in paying tribute to the generations of Hispanic Americans who have positively influenced and enriched our nation and society.

Interconnecting Worlds: Weaving Community Narratives, Andean Histories & the Library's Collections (<https://guides.loc.gov/weaving-community-narratives-andean-histories-library-collections>)

¡Haykuykamuy! The Hispanic Reading Room at the Library of Congress welcomes you to Interconnecting Worlds: Weaving Community Narratives, Andean Histories & the Library's Collections. In this guide, with resources in English, Spanish and Quechua, we seek to facilitate research about Andean peoples, cultures, and knowledges through the themes of language, storytelling and literature, visual arts, and music.

Gallery Talk

September 16

The Art of Looking: Lola Álvarez Bravo's portrait of Frida Kahlo (<https://www.nga.gov/calendar/gallery-talks/the-art-of-looking/lola-alvarez-bravo-frida-kahlo.html/2022/09/16/1300>)

Lola Álvarez Bravo's Frida Kahlo is the inspiration for this interactive conversation. Join us and share your observations, interpretations, questions, and ideas, and build on your own first impressions to broaden your understanding of this work of art. National Gallery educators will facilitate the conversation and encourage you to engage deeply with art, with others, and with the world around you as you hone skills in visual literacy and perspective-taking.

Concert

September 17

Concert with Andean and Latin Fusion Band RAYMI (<https://americanindian.si.edu/events/?trumbaEmbed=eventid%3D161714173%26seotitle%3DConcert-with-Andean-and-Latin-Fusion-Band-RAYMI%26view%3Devent%26-childview%3D%26returnUrl%3Dhttps%253A%252F%252Famericanindian.si.edu%252Fcalendar>)

Commemorate the end of summer with a concert by the Andean and Latin fusion band RAYMI (meaning “feast” or “celebration” in Quechua). The group's passion for its Andean roots is reflected in its music, which combines traditional Peruvian instruments, such as zampoñas, mosceños, quenás, and tarkas, with contemporary instruments.
